FUNERAL MUSIC DUBLIN

Funeral Music Dublin provides music for funerals in the Dublin area.

Our team of professional singers and orchestral musicians are led by Soprano Maria Fitzgerald, performing Classical Music, Traditional Music, Contemporary Music or Irish Celtic Music.

We empathetically guide families through each aspect of planning music for a funeral ceremony. Always helping to choose the most appropriate and meaningful music to honour & celebrate the life of a loved one, while providing comfort to family members at a time of great sadness and grief.

Our ensembles range from a simple duo to a Solo Singer accompanied by Piano or more elaborate ensembles such as Piano and Violin, String Quartet, Piano/Violin/Cello or Piano/Violin/Cello/Flute. There is also the option to have a soloist singer accompanied by guitar. Our musicians are available as a stand-alone ensemble or as accompaniment to our solo singer or singers.

We look after all aspects of funeral music planning. We book all of the musicians and singers. We work closely with the undertakers and liaise with the priest or celebrant to ensure all proceedings are as seamless as possible. We provide a full repertoire of music and songs to choose from. Most importantly, we offer comfort, support and help to families to ensure the music is a truly beautiful tribute to their loved one.
